1.3 Interpretation

For the purpose of interpretation of these by-laws and the Rules, the Interpretation Act 1984 shall be taken to apply to these by-laws and to the Rules as if they were a written law.

PART 2 - OBJECTS

2.1 Objects

As the premier harness racing track in Western Australia, to be a leader in horse racing and event entertainment.

The Committee and Management will do this by:

- (1) Providing a safe environment for members, fraternity, patrons, and staff of Gloucester Park.
- (2) Providing high quality customer service for all members, fraternity, and patrons of the venue.
- (3) Maintaining best practice of governance with the Committee and Management to follow not only the guidelines, but the spirit set out in the Governance Code of Conduct.
- (4) Responsibly managing the Association's financial position and assets.
- (5) Optimising the utilisation of the venue.
- (6) As an official Eligible Body, to work with RWWA and other stakeholders for the betterment of harness racing in Western Australia.
- (7) Contributing as a member of Harness Racing Australia for the betterment of harness racing on a national level.

PART 3 - THE COMMITTEE

Division 1 - Membership and election of the Committee

3.1 Composition of Committee

- (1) The Committee shall consist of 9 members comprising:
 - (a) the President of the Association;
 - (b) 2 Vice Presidents of the Association, one of whom shall be the Senior Vice President and the other, shall be the Junior Vice President; and
 - (c) 6 other members of the Committee.
- (2) If the immediate past President of the Association is a member of the Committee then he or she shall occupy the office designated as the "Immediate Past President".

3.2 Election by annual postal ballot

An election for members of the Committee shall be conducted:

- (a) annually by postal ballot; and
- (b) in accordance with Schedule 1.

3.3 Election procedures

Schedule 1 (which deals with procedures for elections) has effect.

3.4 Three members to be elected annually

At each annual election, the three members of the Committee due to retire shall retire and three members shall be elected in accordance with these bylaws.

Division 2 - Functions and powers of the Committee

3.5 Functions of Committee

The affairs of the Association shall be managed exclusively by the Committee.

3.6 Powers of Committee

The Committee shall have power to:

- (a) purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire any real or personal property;
- (b) determine the conditions on which and times when members may use the property of the Association, and the manner, times and conditions how, when and under which members may enjoy the privileges of the Association;
- (c) determine what persons (if any) not being members shall be allowed to use the property of the Association, and during what time and subject to and under what conditions and when and at what times and places and under what conditions such persons may enjoy the privileges of the Association;
- (d) appoint and remove the Chief Executive and all such servants and assistants as may in the opinion of the Committee be necessary and pay such salary and wages to and define the duties of the Chief Executive, servants or assistants as the Committee thinks fit;
- (e) delegate, subject to such conditions as they think fit, any of their powers to sub-committees consisting of such members of the Committee as it thinks fit and make such regulations as to the proceedings of such sub-committees as may be thought desirable;
- (f) pay to any servant or assistant of the Association any gratuity for faithful and diligent service as to them seems fit;

- (g) sign and where necessary affix the common seal to and deliver transfers, assurances, leases, sub-leases, mortgages, and all other deeds and documents, agreements and writings in the name and on behalf of the Association;
- (h) enter into guarantees, indemnities and similar undertakings;
- (i) draw, make, accept, endorse and issue cheques, drafts, promissory notes, bills of exchange, negotiable securities or instruments of whatsoever kind or nature;
- (j) take and defend all legal proceedings by or on behalf of the Association and appoint all necessary attorneys for any such purpose;
- (k) borrow, raise and secure the payment of money and mortgage and charge the assets and undertakings of the Association;
- (l) subject to clause 3.7, sell and dispose of any real or personal property of the Association; and
- (m) make policies and a Code of Conduct with respect to the professional and personal behaviour expected of Committee Members and to consequences of breaching such policies and Code of Conduct and enforcement thereof.

3.7 Sale of Gloucester Park

- (1) Notwithstanding the Committee's power to sell and dispose of any real or personal property of the Association, no part of the property known as "Gloucester Park" shall be sold or otherwise disposed of unless:
 - (a) such sale or disposal shall have first been approved at a referendum conducted for the purpose by sixty six and two thirds per centum ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) or more of the eligible voting members; and
 - (b) the number of members who voted in favour of the approval shall exceed fifty per centum (50%) of the eligible voting members.
- (2) In this clause, "eligible voting member" means a full member or life member included in the electoral roll prepared for the referendum in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 1.
- (3) The Committee shall arrange for the referendum referred to in subclause (1) to be conducted in accordance with Schedule 1.

3.8 Election procedures to apply to referendums

To the extent to which the provisions of Schedule 1 are capable of being applied with or without adaptation in respect of referendums to be conducted by the Association, those provisions apply with or without adaptation in respect of those referendums.

Division 3 - Terms of office

3.9 Term of office

- (1) A member of the Committee shall hold office for 3 years until the close of the annual general meeting at which the member's successor is declared elected.
- (2) A successful candidate elected to the Committee shall take office at the close of the meeting at which the candidate is declared elected.

3.10 Election of President and Vice Presidents

At its first meeting after the election of the Committee, the members of the Committee shall elect from among their number a President, a Senior Vice President and a Junior Vice President, who shall hold office until the close of the next annual general meeting.

3.11 Casual vacancy in the office of President

In the case of a vacancy in the office of President, the Senior Vice President shall become the President, the Junior Vice President shall become the Senior Vice President and the Committee shall elect one of its members to the office of Junior Vice President who shall hold that office until the close of the next annual general meeting.

3.12 Casual vacancy in the office of Vice President

- (1) In the case of a vacancy in the office of Senior Vice President, the Junior Vice President shall become the Senior Vice President and the Committee shall elect one of its members to the office of Junior Vice President who shall hold that office until the close of the next annual general meeting.
- (2) In the case of a vacancy in the office of Junior Vice President, the Committee shall elect one of its members to that office who shall hold that office until the close of the next annual general meeting.

3.13 Retiring members

- (1) Subject to subclauses (2) to (6), if a member of the Committee ceases to be such before the expiration of his or her term of office (in this clause "the Retiring Member") then, in the discretion of a majority of the remaining members of the Committee, the casual vacancy may:
 - (a) be filled by an appointee of a majority of remaining members of the Committee;
 - (b) be filled by a ballot at a by-election;
 - (c) not be filled until at the next ordinary election of the Committee; or
 - (d) not be filled at all.

- (2) If the effect of the Retiring Member's ceasing to be a member of the Committee is that the number of members of Committee shall be less than 5 then the casual vacancy shall be filled by the conduct of a by-election.
- (3) (a) If the Committee determines that the casual vacancy shall be filled by the conduct of a by-election or if by reason of the provisions of subclause (2) the casual vacancy is required to be filled by the conduct of a by-election then the same shall be conducted by a ballot to which the provisions of Schedule 1 shall apply except that:
 - (i) the Committee shall fix the date upon which nominations shall close and the date upon which the ballot shall be declared respectively;
 - (ii) the Returning Officer shall make his report to the President of the Association who shall declare and record the result of the ballot; and
 - (iii) every person elected to a casual vacancy of the Committee shall hold office until the term of the office of the Retiring Member in whose place the person was elected would have expired had the Retiring Member continued to be a member of the Committee.
- (4) If the Committee appoints a person to fill a casual vacancy the person appointed to fill the vacancy shall retire at the next ordinary election and the vacancy created shall be filled by the candidate for election to membership of the Committee who at that next ordinary election shall poll the next highest number of votes after the candidate for election to membership of the Committee who shall be elected last to membership of the Committee.
- (5) If the Committee does not appoint a person to fill the vacancy then the vacancy shall be filled at the next ordinary election for the Committee by the candidate for election to membership of the Committee who at that next ordinary election shall poll the next highest number of votes after the candidate for election as a member of the Committee who shall be elected last to the Committee.
- (6) The member of the Committee elected pursuant to subclause (4) or (5) as the case may be, shall hold office so long as the Retiring Member in whose place he was elected would have held office had the Retiring Member continued to be a member of the Committee.

3.14 Resignation

- (1) A member of the Committee may:
 - (a) resign from the office of member of the Committee;
 - (b) resign from the office of President or Vice President.

- (2) Written notice of resignation is to be signed and dated by the person who is resigning and delivered to the Chief Executive.
- (3) The resignation takes effect from the date of delivery of the notice or from a later day specified in the notice.

Division 4 - Qualifications for holding office on the Committee

3.15 Eligibility for Committee

A person is eligible to be elected as a member of the Committee if the person:

- (a) is a full member who is at least 18 years of age; and
- (b) has been a full member for not less than 12 continuous months immediately prior to the closing date for nomination for election.

3.16 Disqualification because of employment or pending charges

- (1) A person is disqualified from membership of the Committee if the person becomes an employee of the Association.
- (2) If a person who is employed by the Association is declared to be elected as a member of the Committee:
 - (a) then the person is ineligible to attend meetings of the Committee until the person has ceased employment with the Association; and
 - (b) if the person remains employed by the Association at the expiry of 2 months after the date on which the person is declared elected, then the person is disqualified from membership of the Committee.

3.16A If a Committee Member is charged with having committed a serious offence (Charged Member) then the Committee may by a majority vote suspend the Charged member on full pay, partial pay or without pay until the criminal charge has been finalised.

3.16B The Committee may at any time remove or vary the terms of the suspension.

3.16C If the Charged Member is found guilty of the offence concerned or another serious offence then the Charged Member will be disqualified from holding the position as a Committee Member and will be immediately expelled from the Committee.

3.17 Disqualification because of ceasing to be a full member

A person is disqualified from membership of the Committee if the person ceases to be a full member of the Association.

3.18 Disqualification for failure to attend meetings

- (1) The Committee may, by resolution, grant leave of absence, to a member.

- (2) The granting of the leave is to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- (3) A member who is absent, without first obtaining leave of the Committee, throughout 3 consecutive ordinary meetings of the Committee is disqualified from continuing his or her membership of the Committee.
- (4) The non-attendance of a member at the time and place appointed for an ordinary meeting of the Committee does not constitute absence from an ordinary meeting of the Committee if no meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present is actually held on that day.

3.19 Disqualification because of insolvency

A person is disqualified for membership of the Committee if the person is an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporation Law.

- (1) At any general meeting, the members entitled to vote may elect a person who is considered to have rendered special services to the Association to be a life member, provided that:
 - (a) not less than 14 days notice of the motion is given to the Chief Executive; and
 - (b) the resolution is passed by not less than 75% of the persons present at the meeting and entitled to vote.
- (2) Persons elected as life members prior to 1 September 1999 continue as life members after that date.

4.13 Entitlement of life members

A life member is entitled to the same privileges as a full member but is not required to pay an annual subscription.

4.14 Election of honorary members

The Committee may, at any time without notice, elect an honorary member and cancel the membership of an honorary member.

4.15 Entitlement of honorary member

- (1) An honorary member is entitled to free entry to and use of the members' facilities at Gloucester Park.
- (2) An honorary member is not entitled to:
 - (a) attend and vote at general meetings;

- (b) vote in elections for the members of the Committee or in referendums;
- (c) propose or second candidates for membership;
- (d) propose or second candidates for election to the Committee;
- (e) receive a copy of the annual report of the Association; or
- (f) receive a copy of the Association's newsletters.

4.16 Cessation of membership

- (1) A member shall cease to be a member upon the member's:
 - (a) written resignation;
 - (b) death;
 - (c) disqualification under the Rules; or
 - (d) failure to pay the applicable annual subscription on or before 31 August.
- (2) If a former member who has ceased to be a member under paragraph (d) of subclause (1) makes payment of all arrears during the then current financial year, then the Committee may reinstate the person as a member.
- (2A) If the Committee reinstates a person as a member pursuant to subclause (2) then, for the purpose of clause 3.15(b) the period during which the person ceased to be a member by virtue of clause 4.16(1)(d) shall not be taken into account in determining whether a person has been a full member for not less than 12 continuous months immediately prior to the closing date.
- (2B) If a former member who has ceased to be a member under paragraph (d) of subclause (1) was a member of the Committee, then a decision by the Committee to reinstate the person as a member under subclause (2) is taken to be a decision to reinstate the person as a member of the Committee.
- (3) If a member:
 - (a) becomes bankrupt or makes any assignment for the benefit of his creditors;
 - (b) fails to comply with any of these by-laws or the Rules or any other order or direction of the Committee or of the members passed at a general meeting;
 - (c) is convicted of any offence punishable summarily or of any crime or misdemeanour; or

- (d) in the opinion of the Committee, is guilty of conduct unbecoming of a member or any act, practice, conduct, matter or thing calculated to bring discredit on the Association or its members or on the sport of harness racing or to impair or affect the enjoyment of the Association by the other members, then that member shall be liable to be suspended or expelled from membership by resolution of the Committee.

- (4) Before the Committee suspends or expels any member, the Committee shall follow the following procedure:
 - (a) the Chief Executive, on behalf of the Committee, shall give to the member notice in writing of the matter of complaint;
 - (b) the Committee shall cause notice of the complaint to be sent to the member by registered letter and directing the member and the accuser, if any, to appear before the Committee at a hearing to give evidence;
 - (c) the Committee shall give the member at least 7 days notice in writing before the date of the hearing;
 - (d) the Committee shall give at least 3 days notice in writing of the hearing to any other member required by the Committee to appear before it and give evidence;
 - (e) the Committee may take evidence and decide the case notwithstanding the failure by any party to attend.
- (5) Any person ceasing to be a member for any reason shall remain liable for the payment of all subscriptions and other money due and payable by the person.

4.17 Appeals from expulsion or suspension

- (1) Any member expelled or suspended under clause 4.18(3) who feels aggrieved by the expulsion or suspension by the Committee may appeal to a special meeting of the members.
- (2) An appeal under subclause (1) shall be lodged by written notice lodged with the Chief Executive within 14 days of the expulsion or suspension.
- (3) A notice of appeal shall set out the grounds of appeal and be accompanied by an appeal fee determined by the Committee.
- (4) Until the hearing of any appeal the decision of the Committee shall have full effect but the expelled or suspended member shall have the right to attend the special meeting.
- (5) If the majority of the members present and entitled to vote at the special meeting resolve to uphold the appeal then the appeal fee shall be returned to the member and the member's rights and privileges shall be restored.

4.18 Absentee members

- (1) If a member:
 - (a) intends to leave the State for a period not less than 6 months; and
 - (b) has paid all subscriptions and other monies due by the member to the Association,then the member may, on application in writing to the Chief Executive, be placed on the list of absentee members.
- (2) During an absentee's period of absence, the member shall be liable for a subscription at the rate of half of the applicable annual subscription commencing as from 31 August next until the person's return.

PART 5 – MEETINGS – ANNUAL GENERAL AND SPECIAL

5.1 Annual general meeting

- (1) The annual general meeting shall be held in October each year.
- (2) The annual general meeting shall be held on a day and hour determined by the Committee from time to time, and shall be convened by not less than 21 days' notice.
- (3) Notice given under subclause (2) shall be accompanied by a copy of the annual report and the election package referred to in Item 16 of Schedule 1.

5.2 Submission of motions by members to annual general meetings

- (1) Any member may give notice of any motion to the then next annual general meeting by giving to the Chief Executive:
 - (a) written notice;
 - (b) a copy of the proposed motion,on or before 1 September in any year.
- (2) Upon receipt of the notice and motion, the Chief Executive shall:
 - (a) post the notice on the notice board in the Association's office; and
 - (b) notify the same in the notices convening the annual meeting.

5.3 Special meetings

- (1) At any time, the Committee may convene a special meeting of members.

- (2) The Committee shall convene a special meeting on requisition made in writing by not less than 30 members.
- (3) Every requisition shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called.
- (4) The special meeting shall be held in not less than 10 days nor more than 21 days from the time of receipt of the requisition.
- (5) If the Committee declines or neglects to convene the meeting, then the requisitionists or any of them may do so.

5.4 Notice of special meeting

The Chief Executive shall cause 7 days' notice of every special meeting, specifying the time and place of meeting and nature of the business to be given to the members.

5.5 Special business

All business shall be deemed special that is:

- (a) transacted at a special meeting; and

Every annual general meeting and special meeting shall be held at a place determined by the Committee from time to time.

5.7 Quorum

At any annual general meeting or special meeting, 7.5% of all members who are entitled to vote shall form a quorum.

5.8 Procedure where quorum not present

- (1) If a quorum of members is not present within half-an-hour from the time appointed for an annual general meeting or special meeting, then the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place.
- (2) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum of members be not present, then the members present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

5.9 Presiding person

- (1) Every meeting of the Association shall be presided over:

- (a) by the President;
 - (b) by the Senior Vice President, in the absence of the President;
 - (c) by the Junior Vice President, in the absence of the President and the Senior Vice President;
 - (d) by a member of the Committee, in the absence of the President and the Vice Presidents.
- (2) If within 10 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting none of the persons referred to in subclause (1) are present, then the meeting may elect its own presiding person.

5.10 Adjournment

- (1) With the consent of the meeting, the chairperson of any meeting may adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place.
- (2) No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

5.11 Carrying of resolutions

- (1) At any annual general meeting or special meeting, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, carried by a particular majority or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (2) Notwithstanding subclause (1), any member may demand a division on the resolution which shall be taken forthwith and the decision shall be final.

5.12 Voting entitlement

Every member entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote on a show of hands and at a division.

5.13 Order of business

The order of business at an annual general meeting shall be:

- (a) confirmation of minutes of last annual general meeting and of any special meeting held since the preceding annual general meeting;
- (b) receiving and discussing the annual accounts and reports of the Committee;
- (c) the election of Committee;
- (d) the determination of any matter appearing on the notice convening the meeting;

- (e) special business, if any, brought forward after written notice as before mentioned;
- (f) general business.

5.14 Minutes

- (1) Minutes of the proceedings at every annual general meeting or special meeting shall be entered and kept in a book and the minutes shall be produced to and signed by the presiding person within 30 days of the holding of the general meeting.
- (2) When signed by the presiding person or by the presiding person of the next following general meeting, the minutes shall be prima facie evidence of the proceedings and matters stated in the minutes.
- (3) Minutes of the proceedings at every meeting shall be confirmed at the next annual general meeting and, unless such minutes shall have been previously circulated to members, shall be read at such annual general meeting prior to being confirmed.

5.15 Giving of notice

- (1) Annual general meetings and special meetings shall be convened by notice given by circular or post card posted in Perth addressed to each member.
- (2) Every meeting shall be valid notwithstanding the inadvertent omission to post to or the non-receipt of any notice by any member.

- (1) The Chief Executive shall cause to be kept a register of members in accordance with this clause.
- (2) The register of members shall include:
 - (a) the name and address of each member; and
 - (b) each member's category of membership.

- (3) For the purpose of these bylaws, the register is conclusive evidence as to the matters stated in it.

6.3 Signatures of members

- (1) All members shall comply with a request by the Chief Executive to affix the member's ordinary signature in a register for the purposes of identification.
- (2) The register referred to in this clause may be used to identify signatures for the purpose of Schedule 1.

PART 7 - FINANCIAL

7.1 Accounts

The Association shall keep correct accounts and financial records showing the financial affairs of the Association and the particulars usually shown in accounts and financial records of a like nature.

7.2 Subsidiaries

In the event of a corporation being a subsidiary of the Association, separate accounts and financial records shall be kept for the Association and the corporation and no group accounts shall be prepared without a resolution of the Committee.

7.3 Financial year

The financial year of the Association shall run from 1 August to 31 July in the following year and the accounts of the Association shall be closed on 31 July in each year and a balance sheet containing a summary of assets and liabilities of the Association on that date shall be made out.

7.4 Appointment of Auditor

- (1) The Auditor, who shall be a registered company auditor, shall be appointed by the members at each succeeding alternate annual general meeting for a term of 3 years at such remuneration as shall be fixed by the Committee from time to time.
- (2) Expressions of interest from registered company auditors will be sought by the Committee 3 calendar months prior to the relevant annual general meeting by advertising in a daily newspaper circulating in Perth, Western Australia.
- (3) Any outgoing or past Auditor is not precluded from submitting an expression of interest or from being appointed for a further term or terms of office.

- (4) A copy of a statement containing the names of all eligible nominees and remunerations sought will be posted to each member 7 days prior to the relevant annual general meeting.
- (5)
 - (a) The Committee may make a recommendation to members on the basis of expressions of interest and submissions received.
 - (b) The appointment of the Auditor shall be decided by the highest number of votes counted from a show of hands.
 - (c) In the event of a tie the presiding person shall decide the issue by a casting vote.
- (6) In the event that the Auditor dies or is unwilling or unable to continue in that position before the expiration of his or its appointed term, then the vacancy shall be filled by a registered company auditor for the time being appointed by a majority of the members of the Committee at a meeting of the Committee.
- (7) The Auditor (including any employees, partners or associates of the Auditor and any persons with an interest in the Auditor) shall not be eligible to serve as a member of the Committee.

7.5 Auditor's functions

- (1) Before each annual general meeting in October, the accounts for the previous financial year, with all vouchers and receipts and also balance sheet, shall be examined by the Auditor, whose report on them shall be forwarded, annually, to every member.
- (2) The Auditor shall have power to call for all books, accounts and other papers relating to the affairs of the Association.

PART 8 - MISCELLANEOUS

- (3) In any action for recovery under this clause proof is not required of the making of the bylaws or the authority to sue and all such matters may be sufficiently proved by the oral evidence of the Chief Executive.

8.5 Income and property of the Association

- (1) The property and income of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Association and no part of that property or income may be paid or otherwise distributed, directly or indirectly, to the members.
- (2) Nothing in this clause shall prevent the payment of remuneration in good faith to any officer, servant or member of the Association in consideration for services actually rendered to the Association.
- (3) No remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be paid to or conferred on a member of the Committee except repayment of out of pocket expenses.
- (4) Any payment or benefit referred to in subclause (3) shall be shown clearly in the annual profit and loss account and shall be approved by the Association at an annual general meeting or special meeting.

SCHEDULE 1

PROCEDURE FOR ELECTIONS AND REFERENDUMS

Division 1 - Election procedures

1. Application and definitions

- (1) This Division applies to the following stages in the preparation for, and conduct of an election:

Stage 1 - Appointment of Electoral Commission and Returning Officer

Stage 2 - Preparing the electoral roll

Stage 3 - Nomination of candidates

Stage 4 - After nominations close

Stage 5 - Preparing for voting

Stage 6 - Voting

Stage 7 - Counting the Votes

Stage 8 - Declaring the result

- (2) In this Schedule, unless the contrary intention appears:

“Electoral Commissioner” means the Electoral Commissioner of the Western Australian Electoral Commission appointed under the Electoral Act 1907;

“Returning Officer” means the person appointed by the Electoral Commissioner or the Committee to act as returning officer in respect of an election or referendum conducted under this Schedule.

“ballot paper” includes a ballot paper issued via an electronic voting system.

“electronic voting system” means a voting platform or system determined by the Electoral Commissioner or Returning Officer (as the case may be) which facilitates eligible voters to remotely cast their vote in a referendum using a device with an Internet connection.

Stage 1 - Appointment of Electoral Commissioner and Returning Officer

2. Appointment of the Electoral Commissioner

- (1) The Committee may, having first obtained the written agreement of the Electoral Commissioner, appoint the Electoral Commissioner to be responsible for the conduct of an election.
- (2) An appointment under subclause (1) shall be made no later than one month before the commencement of the period for lodging nominations by candidates for the election or such shorter period as the Electoral Commissioner may approve.

3. Appointment of the Returning Officer

- (1) If the Electoral Commissioner is appointed under clause 2(1) of this Schedule then the Electoral Commissioner shall appoint a person to be the Returning Officer of the Association for the election.
- (2) If the Association decides not to request the Electoral Commissioner to conduct the election then the Association shall appoint a Returning Officer.
- (3) The appointment of the Returning Officer shall be effective from the date of the appointment until the declaration of the result of the election for which the Returning Officer was appointed.
- (4) A person must not be appointed as the Returning Officer if the person is a candidate or a person eligible to vote in the election.
- (5) Other officers may be appointed by the Returning Officer to assist in the conduct of the election.

4. Information to be provided to the Returning Officer

The Association shall provide the following information to the Returning Officer conducting elections:

- (a) number of positions requiring election;
- (b) terms of office;
- (c) number of electors; and
- (d) name, title and contact details of the Association's officer with whom the Returning Officer is to liaise during the election.

Stage 2 - Preparing the electoral roll

5. New roll for each election

An electoral roll is to be prepared by the Chief Executive for each election of members to the Committee.

6. Close of enrolments

- (1) In order to be included in the electoral roll for an election, a person must:
 - (a) be a full member; and
 - (b) have paid all subscriptions and other money due to the Association;
or
 - (c) be a life member,

as at 5.00 pm on 31 August “Close of Enrolments”.

- (2) No later than the 21st day before the election day, the Chief Executive is to give to the full members of the Association notice of the time and date of the Close of Voting.

7. Preparation of electoral roll

As soon as practicable after the Close of Enrolments, the Chief Executive is to prepare the electoral roll for the election.

8. Supply of roll to Returning Officer, members of Committee and candidates

- (1) The Chief Executive is to ensure that the Returning Officer has as many copies of the electoral roll as the Returning Officer may require for the purposes of the election.
- (2) No electoral rolls will be given to Committee Members or candidates. Candidates will be allowed to submit a one-page letter (print can be on both sides) to the membership as part of the Annual Report package that is sent to members and must be submitted to the CEO four weeks prior to the Annual General Meeting. The message must not contain defamatory content or misinformation.

Stage 3 - Nomination of candidates

9. Times for nomination

- (1) The Returning Officer shall determine the times and dates of the commencement and close of the period for lodging nominations of candidates for election to the Committee having regard to:
 - (a) the date of expiration of the term of office of the holder of the office;
 - (b) the time required to lodge nominations;
 - (c) the time required to complete the election; and
 - (d) the provisions of these bylaws relating to the times and dates of the commencement and close of the period for lodging nominations in respect of the election.
- (2) The Returning Officer shall determine the place for lodging nominations of candidates for election.

10. Notice inviting nominations

- (1) The Returning Officer shall cause to be published no later than 14 August in, at least, a daily newspaper notice calling for nomination of candidates for election to the Committee which shall set out:

- (a) the intention to hold an election;
- (b) the name of the Association;
- (c) the title of the office;
- (d) the number of members to be elected;
- (e) the form in which nominations are to be made and where those forms can be obtained;
- (f) the place for lodging nominations;
- (g) the times and dates of the commencement and close of the period for lodging nominations, which shall be a period of not less than 7 days;
- (h) eligibility criteria for electors, nominees and nominators; and
- (i) the time and date of the ballot, if required,

and inviting nominations of persons eligible for election for the office under these bylaws to stand as candidates for election to the Committee.

11. Form of nomination

- (1) A person is eligible for election to the Committee if:
 - (a) the candidate is eligible to be elected as a member of the Committee under clause 3.15 of these bylaws; and
 - (b) 2 members of the Association who are entitled to do so under the bylaws have nominated him or her for election by delivering notice in writing of that nomination which is signed by the nominators; and
 - (c) the candidate signifies, by notice signed by him or her, their willingness to accept the office if elected (see Form 1).
- (2) A person nominated as a candidate may, by notice signed by him or her and witnessed by a member of the Association who is entitled to vote, and addressed to and lodged with the Returning Officer before the time and date fixed for the expiry of the period for lodging nominations, withdraw his or her consent to the nomination and that person shall thereupon be deemed not to have been nominated.
- (3) The nomination form shall include the candidate's name to be used on the ballot paper.
- (4) A person who is eligible for election or re-election may vote for himself or herself.

- (5) The Returning Officer may reject a nomination that does not conform with this Schedule.
- (6) Before rejecting a nomination under subclause (5), the Returning Officer shall notify the person nominated and give the person the opportunity to remedy the defect within a specified period other than a defect relating to eligibility.

Stage 4 - After nominations close

12. Candidates elected unopposed

Where on the expiry of the period for lodging nominations the number of eligible candidates does not exceed the number of offices to be elected, the Returning Officer shall declare in accordance with this Schedule that those candidates are elected unopposed.

13. Insufficient candidates

Where on the expiry of the period for lodging the nominations of a candidate for election to committee no nomination has been received, the Returning Officer shall as soon as practicable after the expiry of that period so advise the Association.

14. Death of a candidate

- (1) Where the death of a candidate occurs in an election with a single vacancy:
 - (a) where a nominee dies before the declaration of nominations, his or her name shall not be declared as a candidate and the election shall proceed as normal;
 - (b) where the death occurs after the declaration of nominations but before postal votes are dispatched, no voting shall take place for the relevant position for which the deceased was a declared candidate;
 - (c) where the death occurs after the dispatch of postal votes but before the close of polling, all further voting is to be suspended in respect to only the position contested by the deceased. No count of any votes already received shall take place and the votes themselves shall be placed in a sealed parcel if the ballot paper is solely devoted to that particular position.
- (2) Where the death of a candidate occurs in an election with multiple vacancies:
 - (a) where a nominee dies before the declaration of nominations, he or she shall not be declared as a candidate and elections shall proceed as normal; and
 - (b) where a candidate dies between the declaration of nominations and the close of the poll, the following action shall apply:

- (i) if the public list has not been printed, the name shall be excluded from that list;
- (ii) if the ballot papers have not been printed, the name shall be excluded from the ballot paper and no redraw shall be necessary; and
- (iii) if the ballot papers have been printed, a notice shall be displayed on the ballot paper to alert voters in the polling place and the candidate shall be excluded from the count.

Stage 5 - Preparing for voting

15. Commencement and close of ballot

- (1) Where the number of candidates exceeds the number of offices to be elected, the Returning Officer shall determine the date of commencement of issuing ballot papers and the time and date of the close of the ballot having regard to:
 - (a) the date of expiration of the term of office of the holder of the office;
 - (b) the time required to send and return ballot papers by post;
 - (c) the time required to complete the election; and
 - (d) the provisions of this Schedule relating to the times and dates of the commencement and close of the ballot in respect of the election.
- (2) Elections shall be conducted in secret by a postal ballot.

16. Election package

- (1) An election package posted to eligible electors shall contain:
 - (a) a ballot paper on security paper authorised by the Returning Officer or a ballot paper initialled by the Returning Officer or bearing a facsimile of those initials;
 - (b) an envelope marked "ballot paper", which may have a counterfoil attached or, where the back of that envelope is not so used, a separate counterfoil is numbered to coincide with an identifying number shown against the name of that person on the Returning Officer's electoral roll;
 - (c) any instructions;
 - (d) a reply-paid envelope addressed to the Returning Officer at the private box referred to in clause 23 of this Schedule; and

- (e) candidates' letters as outlined in Schedule 1 – 8.2.
- (2) Any or all of the items referred to in subclause (1) may be printed as one stationery item.

17. Form of ballot paper

- (1) The ballot paper for an election for an office shall be in a form that is determined by the Returning Officer.
- (2) The order of names of candidates for election for an office that appear on the ballot paper for that election, shall have been drawn by lot by the Returning Officer, as soon as practicable following the Close of the Nominations.
- (3) The Returning Officer shall include on the ballot paper information and instructions to the voter with respect to the following matters:
 - (a) the number of positions to which the election relates;
 - (b) the names of the candidates as determined in accordance with subclause (2);
 - (c) the time and date of the close of the ballot;
 - (d) instructions on how to mark the ballot paper in order to record a formal vote;
 - (e) instructions not to put on the ballot paper any mark or writing by which the voter can be identified, as this will cause the vote to be rejected; and
 - (f) instructions:
 - (i) to place the ballot paper, when completed, in the envelope marked "ballot paper" and then to seal that envelope;
 - (ii) to complete the details on the counterfoil; and
 - (iii) to place the ballot paper envelope (and the counterfoil if a separate one is used) in the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, and then to seal the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and post it to reach the Returning Officer before the time of the close of the ballot.
- (4) The Returning Officer shall obtain from the printer of the ballot papers a certificate stating the number of ballot papers printed in respect of the election.

18. Form of counterfoil

- (1) The counterfoil shall contain:

- (a) the full name of the voter;
 - (b) the address of the voter; and
 - (c) an identifying number shown against the name of that person on the Returning Officer's electoral roll.
- (2) The counterfoil shall make provisions for the voter to declare, by placing his or her signature in the space provided, that he or she is the elector named on the counterfoil.

19. Issue of ballot papers

- (1) As soon as practicable after the date determined under clause 15 for the commencement of issuing ballot papers in respect of an election, the Returning Officer shall issue, by posting by pre-paid post, to each person whose name is on the electoral roll for the election, at the address shown on the electoral roll, a ballot paper and the other ballot material in a sealed envelope and provide for the return of the ballot paper without expense to the voter.
- (2) The envelope referred to in subclause (1) shall bear an instruction that, if it is not delivered to the addressee:
- (a) in the case of an election conducted by the person referred to in subclause (1) of clause 23, it should be returned to the private box referred to in that subclause; and
 - (b) in the case of an election conducted by the person referred to in subclause (2) of clause 23, it should be returned to the private box referred to in that subclause.

20. Issue of duplicate ballot paper or return envelope

- (1) Where, on an application made before the time of the close of the ballot in an election, the Returning Officer is satisfied that a ballot paper or return envelope issued to a person whose name is on the electoral roll has not been received or has been lost, destroyed or spoilt, the Returning Officer shall issue to that person a duplicate ballot paper or return envelope, as the case may be.
- (2) An application under subclause (1) by a person for a duplicate ballot paper or return envelope for an election shall:
- (a) be made orally or in writing;
 - (b) set out the grounds on which the application is made;
 - (c) declare that the person has not voted in the election; and
 - (d) if practicable, be accompanied by any evidence that is available of that non-receipt, loss, destruction or damage.

Stage 6 - Voting

21. How to mark ballot paper

- (1) If only one position is to be filled at the election, an elector is to mark the ballot paper by placing a tick in the box opposite the name of the candidate whom the elector wishes to elect.
- (2) If 2 or more positions are to be filled at the election, an elector is to mark the ballot paper by placing a tick in the box opposite the name of each candidate whom the elector wishes to elect, but is not to place ticks in more boxes than the number of offices to be filled.
- (3) Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

22. Ballot boxes

- (1) The Returning Officer is to provide such ballot boxes as are necessary for the election at the places at which ballot boxes are required under this Schedule.
- (2) Before a ballot box is used to take ballot papers or envelopes, the Returning Officer or assistant is to satisfy himself or herself that it is empty and then secure it with a security device in a way that ensures that nothing can be removed from it without breaking the security device.
- (3) Ballot boxes that are to be used on election day are to be displayed and secured under subclause (2) in the presence of any electoral officers and scrutineers then present.

23. Receipt of ballot papers

- (1) Where an election is conducted by a Returning Officer appointed by the Electoral Commissioner, the Returning Officer shall use, for the purpose of receiving ballot papers in respect of an election by post:
 - (a) the Western Australian Electoral Commission post office box; or
 - (b) a private box at a post office, being a private box used exclusively for that purpose.
- (2) Where an election is conducted by a Returning Officer appointed by the Association, the Returning Officer shall use, for the purpose of receiving ballot papers in respect of that election by post, a private box at a post office, being a private box used exclusively for that purpose.

Stage 7 - Counting the Votes

24. Procedure for checking counterfoils

- (1) Counterfoils are to be checked as follows:

- (a) the Returning Officer is to open each postage pre-paid envelope and remove the papers contained in it;
 - (b) the Returning Officer is to check that the counterfoil is completed in accordance with this Schedule;
 - (c) if satisfied, the Returning Officer is to mark the roll either manually or electronically; and
 - (d) if not satisfied, the Returning Officer is to make a record on the ballot paper envelope of its rejection without opening it or allowing it to be opened.
- (2) The Returning Officer shall compare signatures on counterfoils to those appearing in the register referred to in clause 8.3 of the bylaws and, if not similar, reject these.
 - (3) The Returning Officer shall place all envelopes in a sealed ballot box until the count or prepare the ballot papers for the count in accordance with clause 25.

25. Preparation of postal ballot papers for count

- (1) Postal voting papers for a postal election that have been:
 - (a) received by the Returning Officer before the close of poll;
 - (b) checked in accordance with clause 24(1); and
 - (c) accepted by the Returning Officer, shall be prepared for counting by the Returning Officer.
- (2) To prepare postal voting papers under subclause (1), the Returning Officer may, before the close of the poll:
 - (a) detach each counterfoil if it is attached to the envelope, and put aside;
 - (b) remove the ballot paper envelopes from the ballot box in which they were placed;
 - (c) open each ballot paper envelope; and
 - (d) without:
 - (i) examining the ballot paper personally; or
 - (ii) allowing the examination of the ballot paper by any scrutineers present, remove the ballot paper from the envelope and place the ballot paper into a sealed ballot box, which must remain sealed until the close of the poll.

- (3) The Returning Officer may conduct any or all of the processes referred to in clauses 24 and 25(2) after the close of the poll.
- (4) The Returning Officer is to keep:
 - (a) the electors' counterfoils;
 - (b) the ballot paper envelopes rejected under clause 24; and
 - (c) empty ballot paper envelopes,in safe custody until the count is complete.

26. The count

- (1) The votes shall be counted using the "First Past the Post" method.
- (2) The candidates are elected in order according to highest number of votes received.
- (3) In the case of a tie, the Returning Officer shall decide the issue by a casting vote.
- (4) If the terms of office differ in length, the candidate or candidates with the larger number of votes are elected for the longer term.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the time of the close of the ballot, and in the presence of the scrutineers, if any, the Returning Officer shall take the ballot box or boxes to the place of count and proceed to make the count.
- (6) Where any voting paper is rejected, the Returning Officer shall mark the voting paper "rejected" with the reasons for rejection and set it aside for safe keeping.
- (7) The Returning Officer may, from time to time, adjourn the count to a day and hour to be fixed by the Returning Officer and notify the Association, candidates and scrutineers.

27. Use of computers in the counting process

The Returning Officer may use automated means to carry out the checking and counting procedures for any ballot where the Returning Officer considers this method would be a cost-efficient and appropriate method.

28. Recount

- (1) At any time before the declaration of the poll, the Returning Officer may, if he or she thinks fit, at the request of any scrutineer or of his or her own motion, recount the ballot papers.

- (2) The Returning Officer in conducting the recount shall have the same powers as if the recount was the count and may reverse any decision in relation to the scrutiny as to the allowance, admission or disallowance or rejection of any ballot paper.

29. Informal ballot papers

- (1) The Returning Officer shall reject as informal a ballot paper that is not printed on security paper or does not bear the initials of the Returning Officer or the facsimile of those initials.
- (2) The Returning Officer shall also reject as informal any ballot paper that:
 - (a) has upon it a mark or writing by which the voter can be identified;
or
 - (b) is not marked substantially in accordance with the instructions on the ballot paper.
- (3) Where, during the scrutiny, the Returning Officer is informed by a scrutineer that the scrutineer objects to a ballot paper being admitted as formal, or rejected as informal, as the case may be, the Returning Officer shall decide the matter and endorse his decision on the ballot paper.
- (4) The Returning Officer is to be the sole and final judge of whether a ballot paper is formal or informal.

Stage 8 - Declaring the result

30. Declaration of result

- (1) The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the ballot to the Chief Executive, and the presiding person shall announce the result to the members present at the annual general meeting or in a public announcement.
- (2) Where it is not practicable for the Returning Officer to declare the result of an election under subclause (1), the Returning Officer shall declare the result of the election by giving notice of the result in writing to the presiding person of the Committee who shall declare the results of the election at the annual general meeting.
- (3) The Returning Officer shall, in the manner and at the time of declaring the result of an election under subclause (1) or (2), as the case may be, declare in respect of the election:
 - (a) the number of ballot papers printed, as certified by the printer;
 - (b) the number of ballot papers, other than duplicate ballot papers, issued;

- (c) the number of duplicate ballot papers issued;
- (d) the number of unused ballot papers;
- (e) the number of ballot papers rejected from scrutiny;
- (f) the number of ballot papers admitted as formal;
- (g) the number of ballot papers rejected as informal; and
- (h) the number of votes admitted as recorded in favour of each candidate.

Division 2 -Validity of election

31. Preservation and custody of election material

- (1) On the completion of the counting of votes, the Returning Officer, in consultation with the Chief Executive, shall make provision for the preservation and custody of:
 - (a) all nomination papers;
 - (b) all ballot papers admitted as formal;
 - (c) all ballot papers rejected as informal;
 - (d) all counterfoils relating to the ballot papers, whether formal or informal;
 - (e) all envelopes received after the close of the ballot;
 - (f) the marked electoral roll against which the counterfoils were checked; and
 - (g) all unused ballot papers, counterfoils and other documents prepared in connection with the election, which shall be respectively placed in separate containers, each endorsed with the name of the Association and the office to which the election relates.

- (2) The documents referred to in subclause (1) shall be sealed, signed and dated by the Returning Officer and retained for a period of not less than one month after the date of the election.

Division 3 - Miscellaneous

34. Preliminary powers of Returning Officer

The Returning Officer may take such action and give such directions as are considered necessary in order to:

- (a) ensure the secrecy of the ballot;
- (b) ensure that no irregularities occur in or in connection with the election; and
- (c) remedy any inconsistency or inadequacy that arises in the application of this Schedule to the conduct of an election.

35. Fees and costs of the election

- (1) Where the Returning Officer has been appointed by the Electoral Commissioner to conduct an election, the Returning Officer and any other officers assisting the Returning Officer are entitled to such remuneration as is determined by the Electoral Commissioner.
- (2) All costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Returning Officer under subclause (1) in connection with the election are to be paid by the Association.
- (3) Where the Returning Officer is appointed by the Association to conduct an election, the Association will be responsible for all costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with that election.

Division 4 - Referendums

36. Modifications to the election procedures

The provisions of this Schedule shall apply to a referendum conducted by the Association with the following modifications:

(a) Information to be provided to the Returning Officer

In lieu of the requirement under clause 4 of this Schedule, the Association shall provide the following information to the Returning Officer:

- (i) the questions to electors structured so as to give the voter the choice to vote “Yes” or “No” to the question;
- (ii) a balanced case “for” and “against” the question;
- (iii) any contents to be included in the election package other than those referred to in clause 16 of this Schedule; and
- (iv) whether the result is binding and, if so, the result required;

(b) Close of enrolments

For the purpose of applying clause 6 of this Schedule, in the case of a referendum the “Close of Enrolments” is to be 5.00pm on the 10th day before the day appointed for the referendum;

- (c) In lieu of the requirement under clause 15(1) of this Schedule, the Returning Officer shall, in consultation with the Chief Executive, determine the date of commencement of issuing the ballot papers for the referendum and the time and date of the close of the ballot.

37. Modifications to the election procedures for referendums to be conducted by an electronic voting system

The provisions of this Schedule shall apply to a referendum conducted by the Association by an electronic voting system (whether wholly by an electronic voting system or in part with a postal ballot) with the following modifications:

(a) Application and definitions

The following definitions are inserted in clause 1(2) of this Schedule as follows:

“ballot paper” includes a ballot paper issued via an electronic voting system.

“electronic voting system” means a voting platform or system determined by the Electoral Commissioner or Returning Officer (as the case may be) which facilitates eligible voters to remotely cast their vote in a referendum using a device with an Internet connection.

(b) General obligations of the Returning Officer

If a referendum is to be conducted in whole or in part by an electronic voting system, the Returning Officer must ensure that the electronic voting system:

- (i) allows eligible voters to access the electronic voting system for the period from the commencement and close of the ballot as required by this Schedule;
- (ii) allows an eligible voter to indicate their vote in the ballot paper generated by the electronic voting system;
- (iii) gives an eligible voter an opportunity to correct any mistakes before submitting their vote;
- (iv) allows a voter to make an informal vote;
- (v) does not allow a person to find out how a particular voter cast their vote;

- (vi) does not allow a voter to vote more than once for any referendum; and
- (vii) only allows a voter to vote in a referendum for which they are eligible to vote.

(c) Commencement and close of ballot

- (i) For the purposes of applying clause 15(1)(b) of this Schedule, the Returning Officer must have regard to the time required to receive and complete a ballot paper in the electronic voting system.
- (ii) For the purposes of applying clause 15(2) of this Schedule, a referendum must be conducted in secret and may be conducted by postal ballot, by an electronic voting system or a combination of both.

(d) Election package

For the purposes of applying clause 16 of this Schedule, if a referendum is to be conducted in whole or part by an electronic voting system:

- (i) the election package given to eligible voters may be given in any manner approved by the Returning Officer, including by electronic means;
- (ii) if the election package is made available to eligible voters by electronic means:
 - (A) the ballot paper will be provided by electronic means and must be appropriately secure but is not otherwise required to comply with the requirements of clause 16(1)(a);
 - (B) the election package is not required to contain the items listed in clause 16(1)(b), (d) or (e); and
 - (C) the election package must contain instructions that allow the eligible voter to access the electronic voting system and the ballot paper.

(e) Form of ballot paper

For the purposes of applying clause 17 of this Schedule, if a referendum is conducted by a combination of postal ballot and electronic voting system:

- (i) the ballot paper issued through the electronic voting system must contain substantially the same content as any paper ballot paper issued in the same referendum;
- (ii) the ballot paper issued through the electronic voting system is not required to include the instructions specified in clause 17(3)(f) of this Schedule but must include instructions specifying how to complete and lodge the ballot paper;

- (iii) for the purposes of clause 17(4) of this Schedule, the Returning Officer must cause the electronic voting system to record the number of ballot papers issued in the referendum.

(f) Form of counterfoil

For the purposes of applying clause 18 of this Schedule, the Returning Officer must ensure that the electronic voting system provides for the information required by clause 18 to be provided, subject always to clause 37(b)(v).

(g) Issue of ballot papers

For the purposes of applying clause 19 of this Schedule the Returning Officer may issue a ballot paper and the other ballot material (including access to the electronic voting system) by electronic means (including to an email address of the eligible voter notified to the Association) or by any other method determined by the Returning Officer.

(h) Issue of ballot paper or return envelope

For the purposes of applying clause 20 of this Schedule, the Returning Officer may re-issue the information regarding access to the electronic voting system if the Returning Officer is satisfied the person did not receive information about how to access the electronic voting system, the information regarding the electronic voting system has been lost or destroyed, or the person was unable to access the electronic voting system.

(i) How to mark ballot paper

For the purposes of applying clause 21 of this Schedule, the Returning Officer will instruct an elector on how to mark the ballot paper within the electronic voting system in order to record the elector's vote.

(j) Ballot boxes

For the purposes of applying clause 21 of this Schedule, the Returning Officer is not required to comply with clause 22 of this Schedule.

(k) Procedure for checking counterfoils

For the purposes of applying clause 24 of this Schedule:

- (i) the Returning Officer is to check that the ballot paper completed in the electronic voting system contains the information required by clauses 18 and 37(f) of this Schedule; and
- (ii) if the Returning Officer is not satisfied that the counterfoil has been completed in accordance with this Schedule, the Returning Officer will make a record of its rejection in any form considered appropriate by the Returning Officer.

Clauses 24(2) and (3) do not apply to ballot papers cast in an electronic voting system.

(l) Informal Ballot Papers

For the purposes of applying clause 29 of this Schedule, clause 29(1) does not apply.

(m) Declaration of result

For the purposes of applying clause 30(3) of this Schedule, the Returning Officer will declare in respect of the referendum the number of ballot papers issued via an electronic voting system.

(n) Preservation and custody of election material

For the purposes of applying clause 31 of this Schedule, the Returning Officer, in consultation with the Chief Executive, shall make provision for the preservation and custody of a record of the electronic voting system which records the information required by clause 31(1) as it relates to voting by electronic means.
